How many Boston schoolboys wish to attend the Boston American Marathon School, with John J. Hayes as their instructor?

All of you?

Well, boys, be ready on Saturday morning of this week, starting on the hour of 11 to start in front of the R. A. A. in Exeter street. Bring your running shoes.

None but schoolboys will be allowed to take part, and none may enter who have those boys appear with running shoes.

There is a chance for a boy who won the plaudits of the athletic world a few short weeks ago by winning the great twenty-six mile Marathon at London, and his knowledge of his own country is a great asset.

John J. Hayes of Boston, is thoroughly interested in the BOSTON AMERICAN'S idea.

He is remarkably bright, appearing calm, and he talks with enthusiasm.

He says Saturday's run.

"It's a splendid idea of the AMERICAN," he said to-day when he visited the school. "I shall be delighted with my pupils. I have a very boy in Boston who runs, or who wishes to be a runner, will be on hand to help them."

He has not forgotten that the best of any runner is his knowledge of his own country, and that begins out Ashland way where the windings of the R. A. A. course, will scatter.

BROCKTON, Sept. 23.—(Bywire) —The shoe industry in Brockton is working in a feverish haste to make its decision in the W. L. Douglas Shoe Company case handed down to the Supreme Court last week. The shoe workers say that it means a "severe" reduction wage for the $1.25 a pair shoe. The shoe makers say that prices on a $3.50 shoe and the matter has been under consideration for some time.

The exact percentage of the reduction is not made public. The Executive Board of the United Shoe Workers' Union has to consider the State Board's decision and the company's offer. The union workers are protesting when the Douglas Company offers to reduce the price of its shoes into $2.50 and $2 factories. The company offered reduced prices for the workers. The shoe makers say that the workers would be accepting.

The Brockton Board decides today that the company had the right to make the transfer under the contract with the workers. The workers say that the company ordered the unions to apply for new principles, claiming that the company was not destructive to the fundamental principle of trade unionism—that is the right of each bargain.

THE LEAST BIGGEST ISSUE, SAYS REDMOND

Declares Majority of Voters in Great Britain Favor the Measure.

ASQUITH PLEDGED TO IT

"We will probably have a general election in about twelve months, and it is my opinion that the majority of people in Great Britain will cast their vote in favor of a full measure of home rule for Ireland."

This statement was made in Russell Hall today by John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish National party in the English House of Commons, and brought the two delegates to the United Irish League convention to their feet with cheers. Mr. Redmond was given a tremendous ovation.

In addition, he said: "The Liberals are pledged and Premier Asquith is pledged both publicly and privately to make full home rule one of the leading issues at the next general election, and if this promise is carried out I feel that the majority of the people will vote in favor of full home rule for Ireland."

What Envoys Have Done.

"When we Irish envoys addressed you two years ago in Philadelphia we made certain promises, and we have fulfilled them. Since then we obtained from the British treasury twenty-two million dollars for the purpose of sweeping away the mischievous legacy of the people who lived in the country districts of Ireland. If that act is not proof enough of our good intentions, I have no more to say."

"We have forced the British government to allow Ireland $200,000 a year for building and repair work, and we have forced the government to pass an appropriation of $1,000,000 for the purpose of improving the roads of Ireland."

"After thirty years of agitation we have secured from the British government an appropriation of $1,700,000 for old age pensions to be paid to the Irish people over seventy years of age. This will benefit 100,000 people in Ireland."

Land Yet to Be Settled.

"We have also forced the British to take of the land tax on sugar. This tax was levied to carry on the war against the Irish, and amounted to nearly two millions a year."

"The land question is not yet settled. Fresh legislation is necessary to force the landlords to sell to the Irish people. Several other amendments to the constitution, including the Bill of Rights, are being considered by the British House of Commons. The government is in a hurry to get the Bill of Rights passed."

DOROTHY ANSON IN ELOPEMENT

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Dorothy Anson, nineteen years old, daughter of Adm. G. Anson, formerly naval captain and adjutant clerk, ran away from the home of her mother, Mrs. Walter H. Chough, at Mayfield, Ill., and was arrested at a hotel in Chicago by Arthur G. Doherty, clerk in a hotel in Chicago.

TORE HIS SKIN OFF IN SHREDS

Itching was intense—Humor Spread from Hands to Body—Work Interrupted and Sleep Often Impossible—Disease Resisted Treatment

BUT CUTICURA CURED HIM IN THREE WEEKS

"My trouble commenced about two years ago and consisted of a red eruption of small itchy spots on my hands. These spots gradually spread over the rest of my body, and at times were so intense, that I was unable to sleep. I tried many different treatments, but nothing seemed to help. Finally, I tried Cuticura, and in three weeks my skin was cured. I am now well and happy."

BON TON CORSETS

Thousands of visiting dressmakers at the Convention in Horticultural Hall were convinced that the BON TON Corsets were the up-to-the-moment styles for building the hipless, almost waistless figure.

Hundreds of these dressmakers were fitted, purchased Bon Ton Corsets during the Convention days and have now gone home to spread the new figure gospel.

No such corset demonstration has ever been known.

Every dealer of note in this city will sell them.

From the BOSTON GLOBE: "Shapes made to fit styles. Miss White shows how at the corset demonstration."

From the BOSTON POST: "Miss White was greeted with a round of applause when she finished making a perfect mountain of flesh in a transforming corset."

From the BOSTON JOURNAL: "The high-principles of the hipless cult preaching the gospel of the new shape. Bon Ton's the corset. It does the work."

From the BOSTON HERALD: "Hipless now are the modish."

From the BOSTON AMERICAN: "Don't speak of hips now—there are none. I can make any woman have a good figure—with the Bon Ton Corset, says Miss White."

"COULD BE REUCED TO CLERK'S JOB"

Daniel J. Sully Accepts Position With Boston Firm at "Fair Living Salary."

ONCE WORTH MILLIONS

Daniel J. Sully, formerly a cotton operator and several times a millionaire in New York, has accepted a position as a clerk in the Boston office of the American Cotton Company, a Boston business firm.

The story of Sully's rise to the "cotton king" is one of the most remarkable in financial history. Twice he was the owner of the New York Cotton Exchange, but he could not hold it. He was then forced to sell it for $2,000,000. After controlling the market for several years, he was forced to sell it for $2,000,000. He then went to the West and made a fortune in the cotton trade. He then returned to New York and made a fortune in the cotton trade. He then returned to New York and made a fortune in the cotton trade.

CRUISER RUNS FAST BOOKS

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 23.—The R. M. S. "Cruiser" is the fastest of the new class of cruisers. It is the fastest of the new class of cruisers. It is the fastest of the new class of cruisers.

BOMB WRECKED TENEMENT

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The fear of the bomb that has been threatening the tenement houses of New York has been realized. A bomb exploded in a tenement house, wrecking the building and killing several people.

WRIGHT TO FLY FOR ITALY'S QUEEN

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Orville Wright is to fly for the Italian queen. He is to fly for the Italian queen. He is to fly for the Italian queen.

What glasses are to weak eyes, Cascarets are to weak bowels.

Old people constantly need them, and the need is a natural one. You old people—Cascarets are particularly for you. You who do not exercise as much as you used to. You whose steps are slow, and whose muscles are less elastic. You must realize that your bowels have also become less active. They need this gentle help every day.

Don't regard Cascarets as physic. They stimulate the bowels just as some foods do it; just exercise would do it, if you could get the high of it. They are not harsh, like salts and cathartics. The help which they give to weak bowels is just as natural and gentle as the spur of youth.

When eyes grow dim, you help them. Do the same with the bowels when ages make them less active. There is nothing more important. Costive bowels mean that decayed food is clogged there. And the ducts of the bowels suck its poisons into the blood. You can't feel well until this is corrected. Don't let it grow into a habit of irritation. And do it regularly—once Cascarets a day.
